

Something New for OLLI at Auburn in 2017

Book Exchange

You probably have lots of good books. Let's swap some books with each other and share some great reads! That's the idea behind the OLLI Book Exchange.

The Book Exchange will be open beginning Spring Semester 2017. It will be shelved at Sunny Slope (1031 S College St) where you can stop by to get a free book or magazine to enjoy at your leisure. Our first step will be book and magazine donations. Do you have some good books to give to the Book Exchange?

Wanted: Books you've enjoyed reading!

Donations we need

- Gently used hardbacks or paper backs
- Books you have loved recently
- Fiction or Non-fiction
- Large Print editions are our favs
- Magazines within the current year
- Suggested limit of 5 – 7 items per donation

Donations we won't need

- Textbooks
- Books that have been boxed for 30 years or so. Admit it, you probably have some!

Please take your Book Exchange donations to Sunny Slope (1031 S College St), or contact our OLLI coordinator, Barbara Daron, at 334-844-3102.

Donate some great books to exchange some favorite reads with other OLLI members!

Donation Timeline: Jan. 23 – Feb. 8, 2017
